6. Business

- Alex has asked for photos for the website, plus asked for domain and DNS management access to continue building the new website.
- Jason updated the meeting on Nationals, now only three months away. Asked whether there had been a cancellation due to the high cost of flights, David said no — Nationals is going ahead. Hiro Tsukiyama was coming over from Japan to run a training day for shiai and another for kata, as well as to judge the kata. Unfortunately for us, Hiro has been made Japanese kata coach for the national team and can no longer come. Nationals next year may be in either NSW or SA.
- Jason and David spoke about the recent problems in Queensland with junior players. Please be very mindful with your actions, and make sure all WWCC, Play by the Rules and concussion course requirements are up to date.
- There was some talk about holding a Ne Waza competition later in the year, perhaps after Nationals. The September competition will be cancelled, being so close to Nationals.

7. Other Business

Anyone can come and train at the Sunday State Training Day.

Next meeting: to be advised.

Meeting closed.
